

Mary Evelyn Tucker is co-author with Brian Thomas Swimme of the Journey of the Universe book (Yale, 2011). She is the executive producer of the Emmy award winning Journey film that aired on PBS. She also interviewed 20 scientists and environmentalists in the Journey Conversations that accompany the film. All of these materials are now available through online courses from Coursera/Yale. For more information, see journeyoftheuniverse.org.

She is also co-director of the Forum on Religion and Ecology at Yale where she teaches in an MA program between the School of Forestry & Environmental Studies and the Divinity School. With John Grim she organized 10 conferences on World Religions and Ecology at Harvard. They are series editors for the 10 resulting volumes from Harvard. She has authored with John Grim, Ecology and Religion (Island Press, 2014). They also edited Thomas Berry's books, including Evening Thoughts (Counterpoint, 2006), Sacred Universe (Columbia 2009), and Selected Writings (Orbis, 2014). Tucker and Grim recently published Thomas Berry: A Biography (Columbia University Press, 2019).

She served on the International Earth Charter Drafting Committee and was a member of the Earth Charter International Council.
