

Sustainability and the Sacred

Hampshire College Summer Retreat Program
Amherst, MA, July 14-20, 2013

This program offers:

- 🌿 Daily mindfulness meditation and inter-faith earth-based rituals;
- 🌿 Classes on sacred traditions and modern transformative approaches to living on earth, sustainability, personal and community resilience, and activism;
- 🌿 Leaders integrating spiritual practices and insights with actions for earth
(Engaged Buddhist leaders Michael Ciborski and Sue Darlington; Native American spiritual rights activist/Oscar-winning filmmaker Fidel Moreno; Jewish environmental leader Rabbi Ellen Bernstein; UCC minister and pagan scholar Reverend Liza Neal; Transition Town trainers/mindfulness leaders Susal Stebbins Collins and Simon Dennis, and others.); and
- 🌿 Living in community, sharing local organic food and simple work with the earth.
(Residential tuition $800; non-residential tuition $550; for adults age 18 and above.)

For more information, go to www.hampshire.edu/specialprograms/25435.htm or call 413-559-5282.