

BUILDING AND SUSTAINING NONVIOLENT COMMUNITIES: What is our Future?

Keynote Speaker: Michael Baxter

Mike Baxter is a professor of Religious Studies at Regis University in Denver, CO. A co-founder of Catholic Worker houses in Phoenix, Ariz. and South Bend, Ind., Mr. Baxter also served as the national secretary of the Catholic Peace Fellowship.

SATURDAY, OCT. 3RD 2015 - 10AM

AFTERNOON PANEL DISCUSSION:

Facilitator: Michael Boover, theologian and co-founder of the Mustard Seed Catholic Worker in Worcester, currently lives and works at "Annunciation House of Worcester," a household blending Franciscan, Benedictine (Cistercian) and Catholic Worker influences

Jackie Allen & Chris Doucot: co-founders of the Hartford, CT Catholic Worker House and the St. Martin De Porres House of Hospitality. Chris teaches classes at Central CT State University and both are active in nonviolent campaigns

Edgar Hayes & Ann Rader: founders of the Freedom Farm Community in Middletown, NY. Working to educate inner-city youth on ecological and social justice through the lens of Christianity

Tom Murphy: pastoral minister, recruitment coordinator, and resident of L'Arche Irenicon Community in Haverhill MA.

Musical Performances
by the Midwives of
Mystery and Friends

*Featuring tours of Agape's straw bale
house, solar energy
system, compost toilet,
grease car and garden.*

Please bring a brown-bag lunch and food to share for dinner.