The book has been described as “a fresh appreciation for Teilhard’s comprehensive spiritual vision that is so deeply needed for our times” [Mary Evelyn Tucker].

We encourage you to purchase your own copy of the book.

There will be 12 minutes of silence interwoven with a contemplative praying of the text.

Contemplating the writings, prayers, reflections and meditations of Teilhard de Chardin in the format of liturgical hours is an intimate and profound experience. Teilhard addresses God as evolver and evolving, God who is as much up ahead of us as in the revelations of the past.
